An Appeal for Renovation of the Universal Temple & Installation of a Marble Image of Bhagavan Sri Ramakrishna Dev “The heart of the devotee is the temple of God.” — Sri Sri Ramakrishna Paramahansa

Dear Devotees and Well-wishers,

Please accept our respectful namaskars at the very outset.

You are aware that ever since the inception, Ramakrishna Math and Ramakrishna Mission, Viveknagar, Agartala, have been rendering unselfish services and conducting various activities in the fields of Spiritual and Religious Services, Educational, Cultural, Medical and Health Services, Tribal Development, Relief and Welfare Activities for the benefit of the people of Tripura and North East Region as well.

The Universal Temple of Sri Ramakrishna, situated at Viveknagar, was consecrated one and half decades back. Nevertheless, in the passage of time, the Temple is now in need of a thorough renovation and structural reconstruction of many parts of the temple to ensure its longevity. A core part of this holy project is the installation of a majestic, serene Marble Image of Sri Ramakrishna, which will serve as the heart of our spiritual worship.

PROJECT GOALS & HIGHLIGHTS

- Thorough Renovation: Strengthening the existing structure and aesthetic refurbishment.
- Marble Statue: Installation of a high-quality, serene marble image of Sri Ramakrishna.
- Targeted Reconstruction: Structural enhancements to temple segments for durability.
- Upgraded Ambience: Improving the prayer hall for a growing number of devotees.
- Targeted Date for Consecration: 26th March 2027, Auspicious Janmatithi of Swami Yoganandaji Maharaj

Estimated Expenditure: About ₹ 3 Crore

We humbly and earnestly solicit your kind support to complete the endeavour,

Yours in Sri Ramakrishna,
Swami Shubhakarananda
Adhyaksha
